REPORT ON PLAQUE COMMEMORATING THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ARMENIAN GENOCIDE (ITEM NO. 12, AGENDA OF APRIL 28, 2015)

On April 28, 2015, a motion by Supervisors Antonovich and Solis approved by the Board requested the Chief Executive Office to report on a budget, feasibility, and location for a plaque commemorating the 100th Anniversary of the Armenian Genocide.

In consultation with the Internal Services Department (ISD) and Grand Park, a plaque commemorating the 100th Anniversary of the Armenian Genocide will cost approximately $17,000, which would include the following:

1. 23" X 40" bronze plaque recessed on a granite memorial monument;
2. 30" X 36" granite memorial monument base;
3. Installation of the monument in Grand Park (including foundation and relocation of any irrigation lines) by ISD Crafts; and
4. 10 percent contingency for unforeseen circumstances and any engineering documents or permits.

Once the artwork is finalized and approved, the production of the plaque will take approximately six weeks, and the installation of the plaque in Grand Park will take approximately one week.
